

Correspondence.

Mike Murmuring.

John Mitchell of College Mound has been visiting John D. Cowser.

Miss Roberta Clarkson has been visiting Misses Lizzie and Ora Graves.

Mrs. Robert Shannon is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. W. Price, near Dalton.

Mrs. J. W. Coy of Westville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gladbach, Jr., of Newhall visited the family of Jacob Kornbrust Sunday.

Miss Eva Wisdom of north of Rothville commenced teaching the Hurricane Branch school last Monday.

Messrs. Sam Meyer and John Hatter of Marceline attended the dancing party at Jim Kelly's Thursday night.

Mrs. Robert Hunter had quite an experience with a kissing bug, which made two attempts at her face, but they succeeded in killing the bug before it did any damage. It measured three inches long and three inches from tip to tip of its wings.

There was a dancing party at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kelly Thursday night, which was given in honor of Miss Ovida Sumner of Kansas City and Martin Shaugnessy of Notre Dame, Ind. Music by the Okey orchestra of Mendon.

Roy Shoop, accompanied by Misses Lizzie Graves and Birdie Clarkson, was out for a pleasant drive last Sunday evening and while they were going down a hill the tugs became detached and the horses walked off and left buggy and crowd in the road. George Burgener and Ora Graves came to their rescue.

We are sorry to state that Mrs. James Duvall died at her home, a half mile east of Mike, Saturday morning, September 2, of consumption. That dread disease has been Mrs. Duvall's trouble for quite awhile. She went to Colorado Springs for her health at two different times, but all in vain. She was about 45 years of age and was a member of the Baptist church. She was a good Christian mother. She leaves four children to mourn her death: Messrs. Jim and Daniel Bills and Misses Fannie and Katie Bills. What makes it more sad is that their father, William Bills, died in their youth, and their only comfort and all of their love was then given to their dear mother. But God knows best and will comfort them in all of their sorrow. May God rest her soul in peace is our earnest prayer. She was laid to rest in the Locke cemetery Sunday, Sept. 3.

Logonda Lore.

Riley Corey is quite sick.

Born, a boy, at John King's.

Doc Trippie is digging a new well and cellar.

Mrs. Henry Cupp fell from a wagon and was dangerously injured.

Born, a boy, at John Shoemaker's. No deaths to balance the increase.

Jim Cook is under our doctor's treatment. 'Tis a new thing for Jim.

Many campers on Chariton during this hot weather and Beaver and Ardmore strike.

I would not give the CHARITON COURIER for all our county papers for the simple reason it is plain out in cases of fraud. I have known many fearless publications that have brought a reformation.

T. Marshall Rice, wife and baby have been on a two weeks' visit with your correspondent. While here their little boy was bitten by a vicious dog. Several other children had been bitten by the same dog. Some unknown person has killed the dog and everybody feels good over it.

Rev. James Ramsey has been holding a two weeks' meeting at the Christian church. Eleven conversions and some by letter. Fact is, we all like Elder Ramsey because he was here from childhood and we have confidence in him; we know him. He hit some of us old sinners some hard licks. Of course we ducked our head, but knew he meant us.

Dalton Dots.

O. B. Anderson of Keytesville was here Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Steinman's condition is somewhat improved.

Wm. Goll attended court at Salisbury the first of the week.

Vallie Payne made the highest average grade at school last month.

Judge Smith and Major Lewis of Keytesville transacted business here Friday.

Chas. Keyser is having the store building he recently purchased treated to a new roof.

Miss Josephine Thomas of Salisbury visited her sister, Mrs. Hugh Wilhite, Monday.

Johnnie Carskadon, who was injured last week by a horse stepping on him, is better.

Miss Ella May Covenhoven of Virginia came last week to visit the family of F. M. DeJanette.

Mrs. James Winkler, who has been visiting her daughter at Moberly, returned home Monday.

Misses Delia Crawley, Mary Veatch and Grace Moore, three Keytesville ladies, were in Dalton Friday afternoon.

Chas. Hechler went to Warrsburg Monday to enter school. His father, George Heckler, is at Excelsior Springs for the benefit of his health.

Miss Maude Lesh of Barton county, who is the guest of Miss Grace Tate, will leave soon for Fort Madison, Iowa, to begin her duties as a school teacher.

There has been a change in a business firm here. We now have it W. A. Kraxberger & Son, Irvin, the latter having arrived Friday night. Weight, eight pounds.

John Dorrance received to carloads of cattle from Kansas City Wednesday. We understand Mr. Dorrance is going to feed 800 head of cattle and 1,600 head of hogs this fall and winter.

Salisbury Scribbles.

Circuit court is in session here.

The Trilby photo gallery continues to make faces in our city.

The little infant of Walter Maddox and wife died last Friday and was buried the following day.

Miss Belle Richardson leaves Saturday to take charge of the Locke school near Shannondale.

Mrs. A. V. Feazel and daughter, Mrs. McDougal of Ceredo, W. Va., are visiting the family of Frank Feazel.

Miss Christine Rains started Sunday for Texas, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Barry.

Wallace Tindall, accompanied by his mother, left Tuesday for Kansas City, where the former goes for medical treatment.

Our public school opened Monday with a good attendance. The North Missouri academy opened Tuesday morning with a good enrollment.

Fire was discovered in the store-room of W. O. Brooks Saturday morning, but fortunately it was extinguished before much damage was done.

Mrs. A. M. Fellows left Wednesday to attend the bedside of her mother, Mrs. J. Q. Pipes of near Keytesville, who is suffering from an attack of fever.

Miss Leta Bodine returned Saturday from an extended visit at Hannibal. While there Miss Leta was confined to her room four weeks with a severe attack of appendicitis.

Dr. G. B. Gallimore of Fayette visited friends and relatives here the first of the week. Dr. G. has been studying osteopathy for the past two years and was on his way to Kirksville to resume his studies.

A Mr. Haynes of Arkansas died at the residence of Mrs. Mary Ireland Sunday evening. He was on his way north for his health and stopped off here to visit T. J. McNabb and try our mineral water. He was taken suddenly worse Saturday and died Sunday.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Highest Honors, World's Fair Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair

Avoid Baking Powders containing alum. They are injurious to health day as above stated. The remains were shipped to his daughter's in Arkansas Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Oliver, whose serious illness was mentioned in our items last week, died at her home in Salisbury Friday of consumption. Funeral services were conducted from the family residence Saturday by Rev. H. H. Hulten, after which her remains were laid to rest in the Salisbury cemetery. Deceased leaves a husband and eight children to mourn her loss.

Triplet Times.

Willie Bowen, who has been very sick with typhoid fever for some time, is able to be up and around.

Mrs. J. A. Hooper is now able to be up and around.

Mrs. J. A. Smith, who has been very sick for several weeks with typhoid fever, is reported much better.

B. F. Fleetwood and wife and Henry Smith returned home last Monday night from Tacoma, Washington, where they had been visiting relatives for a couple of weeks.

A. C. Fleetwood and wife and little boy went to Excelsior Springs last Friday to spend a couple of weeks for the benefit of Mrs. Fleetwood's health.

Mrs. Blanch Wackley and little daughter, Nellie, of Kansas City are visiting Mrs. W.'s parents and other relatives in this city for a couple of weeks.

Frank Biggs, who has been in Arizona and Colorado for the past 18 months, has returned home.

Al. Graves, a new resident of this city, bought Dr. C. T. Collins' drug store last Monday.

Mrs. Jennie Thurmond went to St. Louis last Sunday night expecting to be gone about three weeks, and while there will purchase her fall stock of millinery goods.

The little infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes of this vicinity died Tuesday of heart trouble.

Elders Davis and Ely of Kirksville are conducting a protracted meeting at the Christian church in this city. Considerable interest is being taken in the meeting and several new additions up to this report. The house is crowded every night. The meeting will continue through this week.

H. G. Shinn of New Windsor, Ill., came in Wednesday morning of this week and says he found everything in this part of the country in much better condition than he expected. Mr. Shinn owns a couple of large farms here that he will sell or rent.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on W. C. Gaston, druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Letter List.

The following is a list of unclaimed letters in the Keytesville, Mo., post-office, Sept. 7, 1899:

Helic Hall. Mrs. Lessie Tommos

When calling for the above letters please say, "advertised."

W. C. GASTON, P. M.

You Try It.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

An interesting communication from Sumner is unavoidably crowded out this week.

Miss Lizzie, the second daughter of Dr. J. T. Aldridge of Keytesville, is we are sorry to hear, confined to her bed with typhoid fever.

Prof. J. D. Blanton, a former principal of the Keytesville public schools, but now president of Ward seminary at Nashville, Tenn., spent a few hours visiting relatives and shaking hands with old Keytesville friends last Tuesday. Mr. Blanton is a son-in-law of John C. Miller.

The White Grocery Co., composed of L. O. and Eugene White, old Keytesville boys, has sold out, and Louis is now on the road for the celebrated coffee house of Blanke Bros. Gene will remain in Boonville awhile to collect some outstanding accounts of the firm.

At the Missouri conference of the M. E. church, South, at Fayette last Monday, Rev. G. J. Warren introduced a resolution to remove the dead bodies of Rev. W. G. Caples and wife from the old cemetery on the hill at Brunswick to Elliott Grove cemetery, and a collection was taken with that object in view.

Stephen Winfree of Salisbury, who was the recent successful contestant among several other applicants who were examined at Keytesville for the military cadetship to West Point from the Second congressional district of Missouri, passed the required examination at West Point last week, and will be admitted to West Point academy. Twenty-eight out of 60 failed to pass the West Point examination, but the plucky Chariton youth was one of the lucky 32 who knew no such word as fail.

The annual Missouri conference of the M. E. church, South, completed its labors for this year at Fayette, and adjourned last Tuesday. The appointments of ministers affecting this county are as follows: Revs. J. J. Watts, G. A. Lehnhauf and E. E. Postwick were returned to Salisbury, Prairie Hill and Brunswick, respectively; Rev. J. W. Owen was sent to Triplet and Mendon, vice Rev. J. C. Kindred, who goes to Mound City circuit; Rev. John Holland comes to Keytesville and Asbury, vice Rev. J. O. Edmonston, who goes to Armstrong; Keytesville circuit is to be supplied by Rev. W. O. Rutherford. Fulton was selected as the next place for the conference to meet.

For Sale or Trade.

I have a carriage, a three-seated spring wagon and a farm wagon for sale, cheap, or will trade for feed.

Trustee's Sale by Sheriff.
Whereas, Henry Eubank and Emma Eubank, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 20th day of April, A. D. 1891, and recorded in deed of trust book 10, on page 5, in the recorder's office of Chariton county, Missouri, conveyed to O. H. Hoss, as trustee, all the right, title and interest in and to the following described real estate, situated, lying and being in the county of Chariton, state of Missouri, to-wit: North half of section five (5), township fifty-four (54), range twenty (20), containing 320 acres.
Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of certain promissory notes in said deed of trust described, and whereas said notes have become due and remain unpaid, and whereas said deed provides that in case of the absence, death, or refusal, or disability in anywise of the said trustee to act, the sheriff of Chariton county may proceed to sell the property in compliance with the terms of said deed, and whereas O. H. Hoss, said trustee, is absent, now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said notes, and in pursuance of the terms of said deed of trust, I will, on

WEDNESDAY, THE ELEVENTH DAY OF OCTOBER, A. D. 1899, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the court-house door in Keytesville, Chariton county, Missouri, expose for sale the above described property, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, for the purposes of satisfying said notes and the costs and expenses of conducting this trust.

J. R. DEMPSEY, Sheriff of Chariton County, Mo.

SIMPLE SENSE
There is a right way to do all things. An expectant mother can easily realize, if she stops to think a moment, how dangerously wrong it is to swallow medicines when in her condition. She can see that the outside application of a liniment which softens and relaxes must certainly be the thing for her to use. Such a liniment is MOTHER'S FRIEND which she can depend upon doing her a world of good before and during labor. Send to us for our free illustrated book, "Before Baby is Born." MOTHER'S FRIEND is sold in drug stores for $1 a bottle, or from THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Order of Publication.
STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Chariton.
In the circuit court of Chariton county, Missouri, April term, 1899.
The state of Missouri, at the relation and to the use of John Knappenberger, collector of the revenue of Chariton county, in the case of John Knappenberger, collector of the revenue of Chariton county, vs. J. O. Godfrey, Wm. Van Avery, Branch Oliver, A. J. Crockett and John H. Turner, defendants.
At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorney, and it appearing to the court that the above named defendants, Wm. Van Avery and C. O. Godfrey, can not be summoned in this action by the ordinary process of court.

Whereupon it is ordered by the court that said defendants be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against them in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain judgment at the relation and to the use aforesaid, for the sum of twenty and seventy-two one-hundredths dollars, the aggregate amount of taxes delinquent and unpaid against the following described real estate situated in said county and state, to-wit:
Forty acres, the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 29, township 54, range 20, fourth (4) south, 18th (18) east, 1896, with ten per cent per annum interest thereon from December 1, 1898, together with fees, commissions and costs of the proceeding, and to declare and enforce a lien in favor of the state of Missouri, against the above described real estate, and to obtain further an order for the sale of said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment and a special fieri facias issued to the sheriff thereof, and that unless said defendants be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the courthouse in the town of Keytesville, in said county, on the twentieth day of November next, and on or before the sixth day of said term, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.
And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the CHARITON COURIER, a weekly newspaper published in said county.

A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand and the seal of the circuit court of Chariton county, this fifth day of August, 1899.
